

Exercise: Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with some time, sometime, or at times in the following sentences:

1. I haven't had _____ to edit my latest article yet.
 2. Let's schedule a brainstorming session _____ next week.
 3. As a freelancer, work can be unpredictable _____.
 4. She spent _____ researching SEO trends before launching her website.
 5. I'll call you _____ in the afternoon to discuss the project.
 6. Writing long-form content can feel overwhelming _____, but the results are worth it.
 7. We should meet up for coffee _____ when you're free.
 8. It took me _____ to master persuasive copywriting techniques.
 9. He seems distracted _____, but he's usually very focused.
 10. Can you give me _____ to finish drafting the client's email?
-

Exercise: Correct the Mistakes

Each of the following sentences contains an incorrect use of some time, sometime, or at times. Rewrite them correctly.

1. She plans to take a break at times next month.
 2. The webinar will take sometime to finish.
 3. I'll visit my hometown some time next year.
 4. He only writes blog posts some time when he feels inspired.
 5. The SEO algorithm changes sometime, making it difficult to keep up.
-

Exercise: Multiple Choice

Choose the correct option:

1. It will take me _____ to complete this website copy.
 - a) some time
 - b) sometime
 - c) at times
2. We should collaborate _____ in the future.
 - a) some time
 - b) sometime
 - c) at times

3. As a content writer, finding inspiration can be challenging _____.
a) some time
b) sometime
c) at times
4. She will call you _____ in the evening.
a) some time
b) sometime
c) at times
5. He spends _____ revising his work before publishing.
a) some time
b) sometime
c) at times

Answer Key

Fill in the Blanks:

1. some time
2. sometime
3. at times
4. some time
5. sometime
6. at times
7. sometime
8. some time
9. at times
10. some time

Correct the Mistakes:

1. She plans to take a break sometime next month.
2. The webinar will take some time to finish.
3. I'll visit my hometown sometime next year.
4. He only writes blog posts at times when he feels inspired.
5. The SEO algorithm changes at times, making it difficult to keep up.

Multiple Choice:

1. a) some time
2. b) sometime
3. c) at times
4. b) sometime
5. a) some time